Christian Compassion For A Hurting World

New Hope Church, led by Pastor Michael Fofanah, and pictured here after a Sunday service, meets at New Hope School and has grown from 5 members to over 200 in the last 10 years. Children from the school have brought their parents along.

The Church has seen many people come to faith in Jesus and be baptised. Groups meet in different local areas for Bible Study and prayer. 14 Deacon Evangelists have now been commissioned.

The evangelists are members of New Hope Church who are passionate about sharing their love for Jesus. They are committed to going in pairs to a particular village twice a week to share the gospel. Left are Paul and Abigeil speaking to villagers at Mabendo.

At Lokomasama, pictured below, a church has now been planted, Deacon Desmond patiently wove the sides of the building from palm leaves!

Our team also support the villages they reach out to practically, with free clinics from our nurse and midwife, as well as community meals to which the whole village is invited, cooking in progress pictured above.

We thank God for the commitment of the evangelists in Sierra Leone. Please pray for their ministry. If you are able to donate £5 would pay for transport for a week for evangelists to more remote villages. £80 would pay a community meal at an evangelistic meeting.
